OVERVIEW

Sessions Health is a cloud-based practice management platform and EHR system built specifically for mental health professionals.

It combines scheduling, client management, clinical documentation, billing automation, and telehealth in a single web-accessible application. Sessions Health aims to simplify everyday workflows so therapists can devote more time to clients and less to administrative tasks.

IS SESSIONS HEALTH HIPAA-COMPLIANT?

Yes. Sessions Health meets all HIPAA privacy and security rules. It designs every feature, from the interface to data storage, to safeguard protected health information. The platform’s Trust Center provides detailed compliance documentation.

WHAT CLEARINGHOUSE DOES SESSIONS HEALTH USE?

Sessions Health uses Claim.MD, offering connections to more than 2,000 payers for electronic claims submission and real-time eligibility checks

USER FEEDBACK & REVIEWS

Independent reviews rate Sessions Health positively for its clean interface and straightforward feature set, though some reviewers note basic form customization and occasional minor glitches. Cost and support consistently receive high marks.

WHAT PRICING PLANS DOES SESSIONS HEALTH OFFER?

Sessions Health offers a complimentary tier tailored for solo practitioners managing a small number of active clients. It includes core EHR functions, scheduling, billing automation, client portal, and basic templates.

For growing practices, the professional tier offers unlimited clients, multi-user support, advanced templates, two-way calendar sync, and integrated telehealth. A trial period lets you explore it risk-free. Optional add-ons like a telehealth suite and electronic claims services are also available.
